'WHY MAN CREATES' TO BE SHOWN OCTOBER 14

The Junior League of Wilmington will present the award-winning film "Why Man Creates" on October 14 at 8 p.m. in Kenan Hall. Faculty, students, and the public are invited to attend.

Robert W. Racine's review of the Saul Bass and Mayo Simon film says, "It is perhaps the finest short film of its kind ever made, though it is very hard to classify. In his own preface he (Bass) calls it 'a series of explorations, episodes, and comments on creativity.' But this is only a description of what he has done, not a definition of it. It would come closer to the definitive to call 'Why Man Creates' the instantly remarkable last word on the part creativity plays in divine revelation--that mysterious transmigration of awareness."

The film, which has won six awards including the Academy Award for Best Short Subject, will be available to UNC-W faculty members who wish to use it in their classrooms. Those wishing to use the film may contact Mrs. Christina Reid, whose telephone number is 76 3-9776.

SPECIAL COLLECTIONS ROOM
GIVEN AUTOGRAPHED ITEMS

The Special Collections Room of the Randall Library has recently received several interesting additions given by Dr. William M. Randall. These include the first editions of two works of Oliver LaFarge, THE EAGLE IN THE EGG and RAW MATERIAL. Both of these are autographed with a special inscription to Dr. Randall who was associated with LaFarge in the Intelligence Service during World War II.

Another very interesting item is a printed post card from George Bernard Shaw concerning "A Forty Letter British Alphabet" with handwritten notes by Shaw and signed with Shaw's initials.

Among the items given is a copy of the "Prieres et Ceremonies" used at the consecration of Cardinal Tisserant at the Vatican in 1937 and a Christmas card with the Cardinal's signature. These are particularly interesting at this time because of the recent news stories concerning Cardinal Tisserant's objections to the Pope's ruling that Cardinals over 80 should be deprived of their voting power. The Cardinal is now 86. Before his consecration he was assistant librarian in the Vatican library. It was in this connection that he and Dr. Randall became friends.

"CIVILISATION" FILM SERIES SCHEDULED

"Civilisation," the renowned color film series on the cultural life of Western man, written and narrated by British art historian Kenneth Clark, will be shown in the Education Building auditorium beginning Monday.

The program is co-sponsored by the University and St. John's Art Gallery. The 13 50-minute films are lent by the National Gallery of Art in Washington, with distribution made possible by matching grants from the National Endowment for the Humanities and the Xerox Corp.

The films were originally produced for the British Broadcasting Corp., and are now being shown on National Educational Television in the United States, but the series is unavailable on television in this area.

In the series Clark traces, from an avowedly personal point of view, the story of Western civilization through the visual arts, music, literature and political history, from the fall of the Roman Empire through the 20th Century. In Lord Clark's words, the aim was "to define civilization in terms of creative power and the enlargement of human faculties."

The first film in the series, "The Frozen World," will be shown at 8 p.m. Monday. The second, "The Great Thaw," will be shown at 8 p.m. Tuesday, and the remaining films will be shown each succeeding Monday through March 29. ADVISORY COMMITTEE TO MEET

The Chancellor's Advisory Committee will meet Monday, March 15, at 7 p.m. in the Library conference room to discuss the faculty handbook.

A temporary, unofficial committee of students and faculty members met Wednesday to discuss a suggestion by officers of the Student Government Association that students be given the opportunity to participate in an evaluative process that would aid in maintaining a high level of instruction in the university.

The committee has recommended in a memorandum to the chancellor that "a select representative committee of 10 composed of an equal number of students and faculty examine means, approaches and methods to improve the level of instruction on the UNC-W campus."

It was recommended that faculty members be elected to the committee by the faculty body, and that student members be appointed by the vice president of the SGA, with approval by the Student Senate.

VEHICLE RULES LISTED

Attached to this edition of the Campus Communique is a list of regulations governing the use of university vehicles. For your convenience, this list may be filed for future reference.

REGULATIONS FOR USE OF UNIVERSITY VEHICLES

General Regulations

1. The use of University vehicles is restricted to official business of the University. They may not be used at any time for personal business. Driver's of University vehicles will not, at any time, carry personnel other than State employees or students of the University on trips in University vehicles without the express written permission of the Chancellor.

2. All drivers of University vehicles must be employees of the State of North Carolina and have in their possession at all times a valid North Carolina Driver's Permit.

Insurance

1. The State insurance coverage is extended only to authorized use of the vehicles, that is, operation by State employees when they are operating in the course and scope of their employment. If a person deviates from his route which would not be the same route as he would travel for his employment, for example, then neither the State as a self-insurer nor the Travelers Insurance Policy which insures the State's liability would cover the employee under that situation.

The Attorney General has suggested that employees secure "other vehicle" insurance on his personal insurance policy. This is relatively inexpensive and would cover the employees personal liability to the extent such insurance is purchased.

2. Should you have an accident while driving a State Owned Vehicle you will find the name of our insurance company and instructions for reporting the accident in an envelope contained in the pocket of the vehicle. If the vehicle is damaged to the point where it cannot be driven you should contact the University for instructions.

Procedure

1. The use of University vehicles may be requested by submitting a "Travel Request and Invoice" form to the Physical Plant Department. This form must have the following items completed and be approved by the Department Head or Agent controlling travel funds for your department:

- a. Department requesting car
- b. Budget code
- c. Driver (anyone who might be driving on trip must be listed)
- d. Time travel to begin and end
- e. Purpose of trip
- f. Itinerary and estimated mileage
- g. Approval of Department Head or Agent

2. On the day travel is to begin pick up the vehicle assigned for the trip at the Physical Plant Building. The completed "Travel Request and Invoice" form will be returned along with a credit card. At this time the following items on the "Travel Request and Invoice" form should be completed:

- a. Trip number
- b. Car number
- c. Date and time out
- d. Speedometer reading out
- e. Signature for receipt of car
- f. Signature of operator (all operators must sign)

3. The credit card will be used only for emergency purchases for State vehicles. When traveling within the State of North Carolina purchases should be made at authorized State stations whenever possible. Slips for purchases from State stations are in the pocket of your vehicle.

4. Upon completion of the trip the vehicle must be turned in immediately to the Physicla Plant; record the speedometer reading in and any comments pertaining to the vehicle's operation prior to turning in "Travel Request and Invoice" form.

REMINDER: You are not extended special privileges because you are driving a State Owned Vehicle.

'YOUR OWN THING'
TO BE DONE HERE

A "now" musical is the description that has been applied in New York and elsewhere to "Your Own Thing," the New York Drama Critics' Award-winning romp that will play April 27 in the Sarah Graham Kenan Memorial Auditorium.

One reason for the "now" label is the musical's score. Another is the show's swinging, contemporary approach and appeal to the younger generation.

Loosely based on Shakespeare's light-hearted comedy "Twelfth Night," the plot revolves around the mistaken identity complications of a pair of look-alike brother and sister twins. "Your Own Thing" was hailed by New York Times drama critic Clive Barnes as "cheerful, joyful and blissfully irreverent to Shakespeare and everything else..."

Curtain time for the performance, sponsored by the Fine Arts Committee, will be 8:30 p.m. Admission will be free to university students upon presentation of I.D. cards, and faculty and staff members may receive one free ticket. Additional tickets at $1 each may be purchased at the Kenan Auditorium box office between 2 and 5 p.m. Monday through Friday. Complimentary tickets may be picked up from Mrs. Burrus in K-107, or reserved by calling her at Ext. 72.

DR. DEAS AMONG ARTISTS
IN NEW SATIE RECORDING

Dr. Richard Deas of the music faculty is co-pianist in three sets of pieces for piano duet on a newly released Candide Record, "Piano Duets, Art Songs and Violin Pieces of the French Iconoclast, Erik Satie."

A review in the TIMES-UNION said: "Joining Glazer on the new Satie chamber music recording are violinist Millard Taylor, also of the Eastman faculty, and like Glazer, a member of the Eastman Quartet; mezzo-soprano Elaine Bonazzi, Eastman alumna now in midst of a busy and successful opera and concert career, and pianist Richard Deas [Julliard graduate and former Glazer pupil now on the University of North Carolina (Wilmington) music faculty].

"Satie (1866-1925), the too-neglected French musical innovator and composer-genius, here is represented by a veritable kaleidoscope of moods within his very listenable, gently satirical, yet in some ways enigmatic style.

"Miss Bonazzi's supple, vibrant and persuasive voice is heard first in Satie's art songs, each with its bit of irony or humor, then on Side 2 in three of his early cabaret-style ditties, all great fun. Taylor performs brilliantly in Satie's only violin-piano work, 'Choses Vues a Droit et a Gauche.' Glazer and Deas open Side 1 and close Side 2 with works for piano four hands, some serious in mood but most of them with those intriguing bits of devilry.

"Throughout, collaborations are impeccable."

The record is available for purchase on Candide label #CE 31041.

The SRO Straw-Hat Theatre opens its 14th season on June 20 with 'Peter Pan' by Betty Comden and Adolph Green. The play will run nightly through June 25. Curtain time is 8:30 p.m. each evening.

"The young in heart of all ages will love the charm of Peter and Tinker Bell and the children and pirates in Never-Never Land, embellished with song. The musical version of this most endearing of all theatrical fantasies is a captivating show in innocent, happy, bubbling good humor."

Seven professionally competent young actors form the nucleus of the resident summer stock company with the remainder of the roles cast from open tryouts and filled by college students and/or county residents.

The summer schedule includes seven plays this year instead of the usual six. Four of these will be musicals, and five of the productions will be mounted in the Sarah Graham Kenan Memorial Auditorium and two in the S. R. O. Theatre.

Following are the means by which an organization or an individual may contribute to the support of the summer stock theatre:

1. Sponsor: $100 or more (4 tickets per show for each $100 with publicity and program listing)
2. Patron: $25 for one ticket per show with program listing or $35 for two tickets per show with program listing
3. Individual Season Ticket: $10 for all seven shows

PRODUCTION SCHEDULE

June 20 - June 25

"PETER PAN"

By Betty Comden and Adolph Green

The young in heart of all ages will love the charm of Peter and Tinker Bell and the children and pirates in Never-Never Land, embellished with song. The musical version of this most endearing of all theatrical fantasies is a captivating show in innocent, happy, bubbling good humor.

June 27 - July 2

"A THOUSAND CLOWNS"

By Herb Gardner

Filled with laughter and warmth this play deals with a bachelor uncle who has been left his precocious nephew to rear. Unemployed, he now finds free time to do everything he has always wanted to do. This situation is looked into by a social service team and laughter ensues.

July 4 - July 9

"YOU'RE A GOOD MAN CHARLIE BROWN"

By Clark Gesner

Happiness is seeing this funny and warm-hearted musical revue that captures the full flavor of the cartoon strip "Peanuts." It is really a day made up of little moments picked from all the days of Charlie Brown, from Valentine's Day to the baseball season, from wild optimism to utter despair.

July 11 - July 16

"THE SUBJECT WAS ROSES"

By Frank D. Gilroy

The action in this 1965 Pulitzer Prize play is deceptively simple. A son who went away to war as a pampered boy comes back as a man of his own, and the varying effects on his mother and father are devastating. They want to love one another, but do not know how.

July 19 - July 23

"CABARET"

By Joe Masteroff

"Welcome to Cabaret" sings the master of ceremonies through painted lips. The people of Berlin join him in celebrating New Year's Eve. The year 1930 is about to begin and we are shown Berlin in all its bawdy and frivolous, raucous, glittering and frenzied life just before Germany turned to Nazism.

July 25 - July 30

"BORN YESTERDAY"

By Carson Kanin

This famous comedy that enjoyed one of the longest Broadway runs in history deals with a junkman who arrives in Washington to make crooked deals with government big-wigs. With him is Billie, a charming but dumb ex-chorus girl. A young magazine reporter is hired to educate Billie. Fun, enlightenment and love follow in short order.

August 1 - August 6

"IRMA LA DOUCE"

By Alexandre Breffort

This is a sophisticated musical which originated in Paris, was transported to London for a long run and set box offices afire throughout the United States. Irma is a dear, sweet, attractive little tart who befriends a poor law student. He wants her for himself and succeeds after a brief stay on Devil's Island.

$$\frac{dx}{dt} = A(x)u, \quad \frac{dy}{dt} = B(y)v,$$

where $A(x)$ and $B(y)$ are matrices depending on x and y respectively, and u and v are control functions.

3. In the third part, we consider the case when the matrices $A(x)$ and $B(y)$ are constant, and the control functions u and v are continuous.

4. In the fourth part, we consider the case when the matrices $A(x)$ and $B(y)$ are constant, and the control functions u and v are piecewise constant, and we study the problem of the existence of solutions of the system of equations where $A(x)$ and $B(y)$ are constant matrices, and u and v are piecewise constant control functions.

$$\frac{dx}{dt} = A(x)u, \quad \frac{dy}{dt} = B(y)v,$$

5. In the fifth part, we consider the case when the matrices $A(x)$ and $B(y)$ are constant, and the control functions u and v are continuous, and we study the problem of the existence of solutions of the system of equations

6. In the sixth part, we consider the case when the matrices $A(x)$ and $B(y)$ are constant, and the control functions u and v are piecewise constant, and we study the problem of the existence of solutions of the system of equations
